

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

ERNIE JOHNSON, JR. is one of the nation's most well-known and well-liked sports broadcasters. He has broadcasted multiple sports and currently works as the studio host, along with Kenny Smith, Charles Barkley and Shaquille O'Neal for TNT's coverage of the NBA. He also has been the Master of Ceremonies for 17 years at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl FCA Breakfast. FCA welcomes Ernie Johnson, Jr. once again as the Master of Ceremonies for the 2017 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl FCA Breakfast.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS

This season, the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl is celebrating its 50th anniversary, our Golden Season, at the pinnacle of college football. At 12:30 p.m. on Jan. 1, 2018, we will play our 50th Anniversary game in our new home, the $1.5 billion state-of-the-art Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

The top-ranked matchup – as assigned by the CFP Selection Committee – will lead in to both College Football Playoff Semifinals. Our Golden Season will be capped off in style when the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl plays its part in helping Atlanta host the College Football Playoff National Championship.

For more information on our 50th anniversary, tickets and more, visit CFAPB.com.

It has been the privilege of FCA to partner with Chick-fil-A over the years to provide this event with excellence for the community.

The heart of FCA has always been to reach athletes and coaches with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and train them up to go and be His hands and feet. The Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl FCA Breakfast is just one avenue that allows FCA to achieve that goal.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a 501 C3 Non-Profit Organization and is a member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.
